Magazine Launch

As you may know, Term 1 after school students submitted artworks for inclusion in the upcoming 6th Edition of the fabulous Big Kids Magazine. The launch of this issue will be down at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Sydney, Sunday 25th May. We are all very excited to discover whether photos of our work have been included in this edition – showcasing the children's work to a national and international audience. Very exciting!

"We believe that time should be valued as a vital resource made freely available for our kids with days left over to collect the quiet unseen bits of the world, to listen, and respond, to breathe and grow, to think and contribute in new ways and old. BIG Kids Magazine supports a current trend in which parents and educators recognise the value of a depressurised and genuine childhood" from Big Kids Magazine www.bigkidsmagazine.com
